

Rice University Center for Education

School Literacy & Culture Project

Teacher Professional Development
In Early Literacy and Multicultural Issues

THE School
Literacy
AND Culture
Project

The School Literacy & Culture Project works with schools and school districts to enhance early literacy practices and improve multicultural understanding in the classroom.

For more information, call 713-348-5333.

Application

Eight Books That Will Change a Young Child's Life: A Three-Day Institute in Children's Literature

July 21-23, 2009

Fee: $495 per teacher

*Continuing Education Units (CEUs) available for a fee of $15
(no charge for clock-hour/CPE certificates)*

Credit card payment online: centerforeducation.rice.edu/SLC.

Application and payment deadline: June 30

Please complete the following:

Name: _____

Home address: _____
Street address City State Zip

Home Phone: _____ Cell Phone: _____

E-mail address: _____

School Name: _____

School Address: _____
Street address City State Zip

School Phone: _____ School Fax: _____

Are you interested in on-campus housing? _____

Number of Years Teaching: _____ Grade Level Teaching: _____ Bilingual ESL Dual (please circle)

Applicant's signature: _____ Date: _____

Please mail this application with payment to: School Literacy & Culture Project,
Rice University Center for Education, MS147, P.O. Box 1892, Houston, TX 77257-1892 or fax to: School Literacy & Culture Project at 713-348-4229.